Reading at St Bernard's

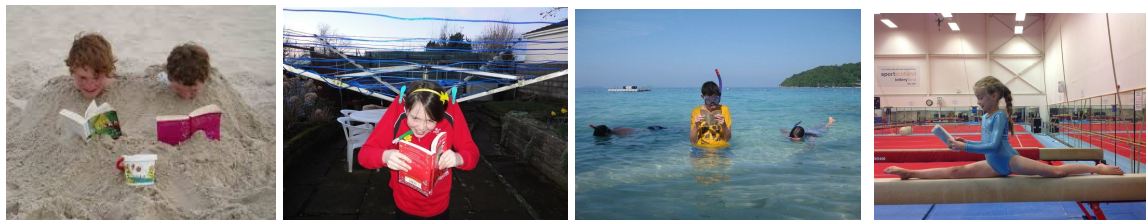

19th September

Extreme Reading Challenge

Books don't need electricity! We can read them anywhere and everywhere!

We are inviting you ALL (including parents!) to take the St Bernard's Extreme Reading Challenge. Think about different, exciting, fun and SAFE places you can enjoy a book. Children – tell your parent/carer your idea and ask them if they could take a photograph of you reading your book in your 'extreme' place. You can either print it out and bring it into school or email the photo to ereid@stbernards.cheshire.sch.uk. There will be a 1st, 2nd and 3rd prize, each receiving a voucher to spend at our book fair in November.

Closing date for entries is Friday 11th November.

Reading Army

Calling all mums, dads, aunties, uncles, grandmas and grandads. We are looking for volunteers to come into school and listen to children read. Whatever time you may have to give, we would love your support in growing our passion for reading here at St Bernard's. If you are interested in helping please fill out the Reading Army volunteer form at the office and let us know which day of the week and what time you would be able to come into school.

Thank you for your support
