

St Bernard's Newsletter

Monday 11th May 2020

This week's Merit Winners

TR 	Ellie Mansley - For writing a super introduction to our class story and for always working so hard on our weekly tasks- Well done Ellie!	T4 	Olivia Thomas - For excellent focus on learning and completing all tasks each week as well as using the learning apps. Keep up this great determination to make the most of learning during lockdown!
T1 	Lydia and Zoey - For creating a fantastic pic collage, showcasing all of the amazing work they have been doing over the last few weeks. Well done girls!	T5 	Cody Morris - for determination and resilience with your weekly tasks. You make them your own and let your talents shine through. Keep up the excellent work- you're doing a really great job!
T2 	Alicja - For creating a brilliant set of singing straws for her instrument! I also loved your mapwork linked to the geography song. Well done!	T6 	Sam - For his brilliant music instrument creation this week. Well done Sam!
T3 	Jacob McGinn - For his continued enthusiasm and engagement in all tasks that are set. Well done Jacob!

This week's online learning champions

TR	Kwame Nyanin and Aisha Sayeed
T1	Lydia Minshull and Oliver Tilling
T2	Jake Ellison and Jerome Bakun
T3	Harmony Pierce and Emmie Royal
T4	Olivia Thomas and Lucy Gascoyne
T5	Maks Goncerzewicz and Ava-Rose Ackroyd
T6	Kira McNay and Joshua Royal