Dear parents/guardians

This week is Anti-Bullying week in school and on Wednesday 13th November it is National Kindness Day. With this in mind, I have set Team 4 a home-learning challenge - to carry out random acts of kindness.

Details

- Your child can choose whatever they wish to do (from helping tidy the house, to baking treats for the family)
- They have to capture their act/ acts in a photo, video or poster
- Importantly, they have to reflect on how they felt when carrying out the act of kindness and, if possible, how the recipient felt when they received the act of kindness.
- Please encourage your child to note down their reflections, however they wish to.

'You can always, always give something even if it's a simple act of kindness' Anne Frank

Please can all children have their learning completed by Monday 18th November

Yours sincerely

Mrs Suddaby
