13th May 2026

Dear Parents,

To celebrate our Sea Life topic, we are excited to announce a trip to New Brighton on Thursday, 11th June.

We have planned a fun-filled day centred around sea life, water safety and local travel. To give the children another experience, we will be travelling together as a small group via Merseyrail.

Trip Details

- Date: Thursday, 11th June (Subject to change based on weather)
- Cost: £5.00 per child
- Transport: Train from Ellesmere Port Station

The Itinerary

- 09:00 AM: Depart from school to walk to the station.
(Note: If you prefer to meet us at the station at 9:25 AM, please let staff know in advance.)
- 09:40 AM: Train departs Ellesmere Port.
- 10:45 AM: Arrive at New Brighton. We will visit St Peter and St Paul's RC Primary for a quick "hello" and a toilet break.
- Midday: Visit to the RNLI Lifeboat Station for a tour and water safety talk, followed by a picnic and exploration on the beach.
- 02:30 PM – 03:00 PM: Depart New Brighton.
- 04:00 PM: Arrive back at Ellesmere Port Station.

Important Information

- Pick-up: Please collect your child directly from Ellesmere Port Station at 4:00 PM.
- Lunches: If your child requires a school-packed lunch, please complete this form.
- Facilities: We understand toileting can be a concern; we have carefully planned stops throughout the day to ensure the children are comfortable.

If you have any questions please reach out to Mrs Thomson & Mrs Witherspoon.
